JOB TITLE: VICE.com Associate Editor

REPORTS TO: Head of Content

OVERVIEW: VICE.com is looking for an experienced journalist, with a deep awareness of VICE's particular take on news and culture, to join our expanding editorial team at our Canadian HQ.

As the Associate Editor of VICE's flagship website, you will be responsible for having eyes on all of the Canadian content that ends up on the website by writing, editing, and maintaining relationships with our editorial freelancers. You will also be required to monitor website traffic and develop strategies for hitting targets.

We are looking for a driven and passionate individual with a deep understanding of both VICE's history and its current vision, who understands how to break Canadian news, but can also hold their own in the realms of tech, music, food, sports, fashion, and travel.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- 3-5 years of journalistic experience
- Demonstrable knowledge of VICE's history and current initiatives
- Deep cultural awareness of Canadian news, tech, music, fashion, art, travel, food, and sports stories
- Experience with managing a team of journalists is an asset
- Experience with Analytics is an asset
- Video production experience is an asset
- Interest in working in a non-traditional media environment
- Expert in all forms of social media with a key understanding of their role in the news media

HOW TO APPLY:

Please send a detailed cover letter, resume and salary expectation by email to jobscanada@vice.com. Reference "VICE.com Associate Editor" in the subject field. No phone calls please.
